101 Proven Strategies To Get More Visitors To Your Web Site In One Day Than Most Web Sites Get In A Year!

Do you like the heading? Well I would like to thank one person for suggesting the heading - 101 Proven Strategies To Get More Visitors To Your Web Site In One Day Than Most Web Sites Get In A Year!

All credit goes to Mark Hendricks for suggesting that impressive title. Mark, thanks for your help!

After my first joint venture with the launch of the Internet Money Machine ebook I decided to author another ebook. By this time I have tested many of the traffic generating strategies available on the Internet, so the book will be on the topic of traffic generation.

The EXPOSED book reveals 101 strategies for generating traffic to any web site. It took me a few months of preparation as this book comes with a printed copy as well besides the ebook version.

How do I promote EXPOSED?

Since I had first hand experience from my first JV project (The Internet Money Machine), I had to plan another strategy for promoting this ebook.

What was my strategy?

“I will approach some of the top Internet marketers for their testimonials and I’ll offer them the opportunity to promote the ebook upon launch. They will have the first mover advantage.”

Hey, that’s killing two birds with one stone. So I started planning and creating my emails. I usually create all my emails before I start taking action so I know the flow. After that it will be just copy and paste!

I have my existing list of JV partners and need to compile a new list as well. By the way I also provided testimonials to other Internet marketers and start building relationships with these Internet marketers by now.

Here are some of the emails that I used for the EXPOSED project.

Here are 2 endorsements for the ebook:

The information you provide is always top-quality, and gives people directly what they are looking for.

My subscribers are always asking me how they can get more traffic for their web sites - now, at last, I can point them towards a highly effective resource that tells them quite simply everything they need to know about exposing their web site.

Personally, I receive over two million hits a month to my web sites, and I couldn't find a single technique that I use, that you don't comprehensively describe in your book - plus I found plenty of new techniques I can now put into practice.

In my opinion, it is an essential resource for anyone wishing to get more exposure for their web site.

Best regards

I just had to write and say "Wow!" ... what a great collection of strategies to get visitors to your website. If people would do just a few of your suggestions they would easily get a ton more traffic to their site. If they would follow your Top 12 suggestions, they would get more traffic than 99 percent of all websites in the world. Great job putting together all these great tips and resources in one easy-to-read manual.

Let's review what I did...

1. I created my book in ebook version and paperback copy. You do not need a paperback copy. An ebook version is good enough and you need to modify your emails accordingly.

2. I set up my strategy - "I will approach some of the top Internet marketers for their testimonials and I'll offer them the opportunity to promote the ebook upon launch. They will have the first mover advantage."

3. I prepared all my emails.

Invitation for Testimonials:

4. I sent out my invitation email for Testimonials to my existing JV partners.

5. I sent out my invitation email for Testimonials to my potential JV partners.

6. I sent out follow up emails

7. I send them an email thanking them for the testimonial with the link to download the finished ebook. I make an offer for them to promote the ebook.

8. When the paperback copy of the book is ready, I send them a thank you email and requesting for their mailing address and telephone number. By the way the courier company needs the telephone number so that they could call if they have problem delivering.

9. I send them the physical copy of the book when it was released with a covering letter thanking them for their support.

Invitation to Promote my ebook

10. I email other potential JV partners with an invitation to promote my book.

11. I follow up with those who do not respond.

12. I email them to thank them for joining as affiliate. I also provide them with some instructions about the affiliate program.

13. I send an email to thank them for their support.

That's what I did to create some of the Joint Ventures for my EXPOSED ebook project.

I ended up having some great testimonials and increase my JV partners' database.

Here are some great testimonials I received...

"Not another Internet marketing book! That's what I thought when I received this one. To be polite, I started reading it. But then I couldn't stop! I'm considered an Internet veteran, but this gem contains some things even I didn't know. Excellent value. Get it."

"Richard, No hype here! I wish I had this ebook when I first started out online. As a seasoned marketer I can honestly say I only knew of 20% of your methods. I shutter to think what will happen when I apply the other 80%. I have placed this ebook right in my desktop to use as a daily resource library to take my marketing to the next level. I can easily say that this is the most informative book I have ever read on generating an avalanche of traffic to your website. Well Done!

Congratulations on your 4th e-book, you've done it again!
This e-book is great for anyone whether you're just starting out or you're an old pro looking to generate more traffic to your website. There are tons of great resources to get lots traffic from in this e-book

I picked up some very useful tips on search engine optimization and ways to get more visitors to our sites. Well done!

Sometimes we use the titles for attracting the attention. This is not the case with Richard's ebook. When he says about the "101 Proven Strategies To Get More Visitors To Your Website In One Day Than Most Websites Get In A Year" he means exactly the 101 ways from 1 to 101 mentioned to his ebook.

I can assure you this ebook will be your starting point when promoting your site; whenever I want to check for more ways to expose my sites (that means: to get more traffic, sales and subscribers) I just open Richard's ebook and "Voila! Another one is found!" - Great job, I highly recommend it!

You've put together an extremely useful and unique guide targeted to the ultimate quest for traffic generation...it's an excellent resource for anyone looking to getting tons of traffic! (and who doesn't want them?)

You've basically covered everything here, and after reading this, nobody will have to complain about lack of traffic - they'd be too flooded with it to have the time!

I confess I was somewhat skeptical about reading yet another ebook about how to drive traffic to my web site. I fully expected it would simply be a list of URL's where I could submit my site.

Wrong! I was more than pleasantly surprised that not only have you included the URL's, but you've explained thoroughly all the how's, when's, where's and why's of traffic generation.

Well done! I'd recommend 'EXPOSED! – 101 Proven Strategies To Get More Visitors To Your Website In One Day Than Most Websites Get In A Year' to anyone who wants MORE traffic.

Cheers,

Rosalind Gardner

TOTAL:				$868.90

Above is a screen shot of part of my Clickbank statement. There are a few things I would like to highlight:

1. This statement was when I launched the ebook. My first sale was at 07.22.
2. Between the time 07.22 to 09.40 (2 hours) I generated $868.90

This is not impressive when compared to other launches but this was the beginning of my JV project. Hey, there was no proper project launches strategy during that time!

The ebook was sold for $47.00 and I only received $14.86 for each sale. To me it was a major success and a turning point in my Internet marketing career.

Over the next few hours, days and weeks, more sales poured in. To me personally, the success is NOT the money made, but the success of my JV project and the JV partners that I managed to create relationship with.

So my friend, I believe that if I can do it, YOU can do it too!

As the saying goes, "Success breeds Success". After I completed the EXPOSED ebook project and I proceeded to my next major JV project, "ZOOM to Super Success". So let's move on to ZOOM...
